The Maryland DORS programs help people with physical and mental disabilities go to work. Allowing them to become self-sufficient and remain independent in their own homes and communities. DORS is a part of the Maryland State Department of Education and operates two major programs: Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) program and the Disability Determination Services.

Vocational Rehabilitation: Eligible individuals choose from services that include career assessment, vocational training and job placement. DORS offers specialized programs for people who are blind/visually impaired through the Office for Blindness and Vision Services. DORS also operates the Workforce and Technology Center.

Disability Determination Services: Individuals may qualify for one of two Social Security Administration disability programs:

- Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) Cash benefits to insured workers who meet the definition of disability and to their dependents.
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI) Monthly cash benefits to children and adults who meet the disability as well as certain income and resource guidelines.

Office of Field Services: Rehabilitation Counselors in offices throughout Maryland provide or arrange services that may include career counseling, assistive technology, vocational training and/or job placement assistance.

Workforce & Technology Center: Offers career assessment, skills training, job placement assistance, assistive technology services, medical and support services that prepare people to work or remain independent.

Employed Individuals with Disabilities Program (EID)

Worker incentive program meant to encourage people to work and become self-sufficient by providing Medicaid for a limited premium to people who meet certain requirements.

Supportive Services for Veteran Families (SSVF)

Program is designed to address homelessness and is a "Housing First" model to help Veteran families with housing outreach and assistance addressing factors such as unemployment, lack of income, limited income, disabilities, mental illness, substance use, poor credit, criminal histories and traumatic events that affect housing stability. The SSVF program is designed to help Veteran households address these issues and secure permanent housing. SSVF provides a short, intensive period of case management to linking families to benefits and may provide temporary financial assistance with housing and moving expenses. Veterans with low-income facing housing instability should apply.

- Limited financial assistance helps Veterans remain in or obtain permanent housing such as rent (not including mortgage payments) security or utility deposits, utility payment, moving costs, transportation, and child care. Only participants receiving case management are eligible for financial assistance payments.

Three agencies to offer SSVF services are listed below:

Village of Hope, Inc. is a non-profit, non-denominational organization. The mission of the Village of Hope is to promote self-sufficiency and to improve the quality of life of at-risk women and children.

Program Eligibilities are:

- All referrals to the Village of Hope are required to be drug free for at least one year.
- Anyone convicted of a felony is not eligible to participate in the program.
- There is a 6-month probationary period for all new residents, with the expectation of compliance with all program policies and procedures.
- Women who are U.S. citizens, (single, divorced or separated) between the ages of 18-62, with no children or who have custodial children (up to 3 children) ages 14 or under.
- Women must be referred by agencies providing services for issues of abuse, homelessness, financial or general human services, etc.
- Women who are motivated to make positive changes in their lives and are willing to work toward goals to achieve self-sufficiency.
- Women with the ability to participate in educational, training, or employment programs for a minimum of twenty hours a week.
- Women with income (employment/monthly benefits) are required to pay program fees (30% of net income).
- Residents are required to maintain a safe, clean and presentable apartment at all times and to complete assigned community chores within the residential building.
- Curfew hours are 10:00 p.m. Sunday thru Thursday and 11:00 p.m. Friday and Saturday, with exceptions for work and school hours.
- Random drug screens are conducted.
- No drugs, alcohol, or weapons are allowed on Village of Hope premises.
